FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF THE UTAH FOSTER CARE FOUNDATION

The Utah Foster Care Foundation was established to serve as an independent organization, which will bridge between government and the private sector. As a non-profit agency, the Foundation proclaims that the following principles are core to our fundamental beliefs:

A. INCLUSIVENESS

The Foundation seeks diverse opinions and backgrounds. It makes no discrimination to nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political beliefs. It will cooperate with and support other child welfare organizations.

B. INTEGRITY

The Foundation will be honest and truthful in its representation and relationships with individuals and other organizations. It will keep commitments, maintain its dignity and adhere to high ethical standards.

C. EXCELLENCE

The Foundation pursues Standards of Excellence in providing foster family services. It shall utilize the best business practices to maintain agency leadership.

D. VOLUNTEERISM

The Foundation is lead and governed by volunteers. Its voluntary movement is not prompted in any manner for personal or agency gain.
